KAPPA ALPHA PSI FRATERNITY, INC. WILL BESTOW ITS 2016 “HUMANITARIAN AWARD” ON THE SENIOR PASTOR OF THE POTTERS HOUSE-DAYTON INTERNATIONAL MINISTRIES BISHOP MARK C. MCGUIRE, SR.

(DAYTON, OHIO), April 22, 2016 - Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc., the International Fraternal Association headquartered in Philadelphia, PA, with representing chapter in Dayton will conduct its annual East Central Province Council this weekend at the Crowne Plaza in Downtown Dayton. The event includes attendees from Dayton, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Akron/Canton, Youngstown, Columbus, Pittsburgh, and West Virginia. This year's “Humanitarian Award” recipient is Bishop Mark C. McGuire, Sr.

There are people who make a difference with a big drum roll, and there are those who quietly inspire, exhort, organize, and affect their community by a sheer dint of steadfastness, intelligence, and humility. This is how Bishop Mark C. McGuire, Sr. was described in a media session this morning. Bishop McGuire will be awarded the “Humanitarian Award” tonight at 7:00 pm at the Crowne Plaza Hotel, 33 E. 5th Street in Downtown Dayton during the public meeting. Several Community Leaders, business professionals, and fraternity sectors from all over the world will be represented. Bishop McGuire was selected for this prestigious award because of his many accomplishments and contributions to the Dayton community.

Bishop McGuire earned Dual Doctorates (Philosophy of Religion/Theological Studies) from the First Bible College of Daytona Beach, Florida. He has earned both a Bachelors of Religious Arts and Biblical Studies from Logos Christian College, and a Bachelors of Religious Arts/Applied Theology from Logos University, both of Jacksonville, Florida. Bishop serves on several non-profit boards, serves as the Senior Pastor of The Potters House-Dayton International Ministries, and Area Director, for Dayton Urban Young Life, a Christian Mission for Dayton area youth. Bishop McGuire is best noted for his ability to assist several entities as a consultant for compliance, quality improvement, organizational management and leadership. His love and dedication to assist and speak into the lives of troubled youth is equally personified.

All are welcome to attend this business attire affair this evening from 7- 9:00 pm. An “Old School” concert will immediately follow the ceremony.

Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. is an international organization founded on the campus of Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana on January 5, 1911. Since its inception, it has trained over 150,000 men, particularly undergraduates, for leadership roles in their communities and the attainment of a high degree of excellence in their academic pursuits. The International Headquarters is located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.
